Welcome from the President, Larry W. Isaac, Vanderbilt University

Welcome to the 71st Annual Meeting of the Southern Sociological Society. We are fortunate to be in a culturally rich setting and to have a culturally rich program in store for you. Movement Matters is the general theme for the meetings and the program is punctuated with an exciting line-up of 15 thematic sessions, including the President's Thematic that features two civil rights movement veterans, James Lawson and Bernard Lafayette. We also have a large and diverse array of other sessions covering virtually every area of sociology. The large number of program submissions this year was especially gratifying.

The extensive and exciting program will keep us all very busy over the next few days. But do try to get out into the environs of Richmond. Our Local Arrangements Committee has done an excellent job of mapping and suggesting interesting local venues. Explore!

I have learned a lot this year. Much of that learning was about how much work goes on behind the scenes to bring a program like this one into full bloom. We as a Society have incurred a large debt to those who have worked so diligently for months to get the Program and local venues ready for our meetings. So when you see the following people over the next several days, please thank them for all that they have done:

- The Program Committee, especially co-chairs, Peggy Hargis and Woody Beck.
- The Local Arrangements Committee, especially co-chairs, Denise Bissler and Sarah Jane Brubaker
- The Exhibits Coordinators: Robert Wortham and Carol Wortham
- Vice President: Jeanne Hurlbert
- Secretary-Treasurer: Stephanie Bohon

Now enjoy the meetings and Richmond!

June 1 – August 1, 2008 • Blacksburg, VA

Demand for qualified faculty in U.S. business schools is increasingly outpacing supply. Our post-doctoral Bridge to Business Program prepares non-business doctorates for positions as academically qualified (AQ) faculty in finance and marketing. This highly interactive and rigorous, eight-week program is intended to help new and experienced Ph.D.'s bridge into business schools as tenure-track faculty.

If you have a doctorate in economics, psychology, sociology, or a related discipline, our AACSB*-approved program affords an opportunity to leverage your doctoral training to build your academic career.
